IN his lone and rather naive quest after the truth Mr. Karanjia, Editor of the Indian magazine, "Blitz," has so far had but little success. He is so sincerely upset and disappointed that he recently asked Nasser, without the slightest trace of irony, whether his reaction to the situation in Iraq was "based on intelligence reports or on other evidence." Nasser, although overwhelmed by this unusual sincerity, had nothing very solid to offer. The information which we obtained disclosed a basic Communist plan to take over Iraq. This would be followed by destruction of the unity between Syria and Egypt. What seems to sadden and astonish Nasser most is that Moscow, which was so nice and helpful during the past three years, should be misled into supporting mere Communists, thus losing the goodwill which it has so laboriously built among the Arabs.

NOW in Moscow, Karanjia has found Khrushchev hardly more helpful; in a brief reference to his current quarrel with Nasser, he merely told the Indian editor that he disapproved of Nasser's campaign against the Communists and the Soviet Union. But whatever these two leaders may say in public, the fact remains that Nasser is in no position to force Soviet aid in his industrialization drive and the building of the high dam at Aswan, especially now that the World Bank seems to have decided to withhold such aid. In this light, the task of the Egyptian mission, which arrived in Moscow on Wednesday, headed by Nasser's Minister of Public Works, becomes more clear.

IT is no coincidence that the mission left shortly after the arrival of Mr. Khrushchev's 20-page Note to Nasser, which, according to some diplomatic quarters in Cairo, was severe in tone and contained four main points. Besides asserting that Moscow was not, and has no intention of interfering in the affairs of the U.A.R., the Note pointed out that Nasser's own reference to lack of liberty in the Soviet Union itself constituted interference in Soviet affairs. Mr. Khrushchev is further said to have protested against Nasser's suggestion that the Soviet Union was not prepared to fight on the side of the Arabs at the time of the Iraqi revolt last July. But the most meaningful of the statements in Khrushchev's Note must have been the one advising Nasser that if he wished Russia to continue her aid, he must agree to the U.A.R. to be only to inform Moscow and the aid would be stopped!

IF such were the contents of Khrushchev's Note, it is not surprising that Cairo-inspired reports spoke of its pacifying effects on the Egyptian ruler. Yet, unable to make a complete withdrawal from his position, Nasser still makes an effort to appear quite undaunted, but now that he has completed his reply to the Note and the Egyptian Ambassador is taking it to Moscow, some slight change of tone has been noted in the Cairo Press and Radio: personal attacks against Khrushchev have ceased, while references to "red imperialism" and "international communism" have become less widespread.

ALL of which would seem to indicate that Nasser no longer has much choice; his protestations that "we sold Russia our cotton — but not our independence" do not seem to help alleviate his dependence on Moscow in the financial sphere. In fact, people less sophisticated than Nasser may remind him that it has always been agreed that he who pays the piper calls the tune, and there is no reason why the case of Nasser, Nasser and Khrushchev should be any different.

3 Brigadiers Named; Werth to Head Chen

Aluf-Mishne Gideon Schocken, Adjutant General; Aluf-Mishne Avraham Yoffe, O/C Southern Command; and Aluf-Mishne Ozer Weizmann, Commander of the Air Force, will receive the rank of Aluf (Brigadier) as of Independence Day, May 13. The Army spokesman announced on Saturday night. Sgan-Aluf Dina Werth has been appointed O.C. Women's Corps (Chen).

Aluf Ozer Weizmann

Ozer Weizmann was born in Tel Aviv in 1924. He studied at the Reali School in Haifa, and at the age of 18 volunteered for the R.A.F. In 1947 he joined the Hagana, and commanded the Tel Aviv flying group, which air-lifted supplies to isolated Jewish settlements. Shortly before the proclamation of the State, Ozer Weizmann was sent to Czechoslovakia to fly Messerschmidt fighters to this country, a task which he piloted here during the War of Independence. In 1950, he was appointed to Air Force Headquarters with the rank of Sgan-Aluf.

Aluf Avraham Yoffe

Avraham Yoffe was born in 1913, into the family of a Lower Galilee farmer, and was educated at Yavneel, and at the Mikve Israel Agricultural School. He joined the Hagana at the age of 16. In 1945, he served as a platoon commander in Wingate's night squads. In 1946, he joined the British Army, in which he reached the rank of Lieutenant. In the War of Independence he fought Israeli units in the Beisan Valley and later, under the command of Haim Laskov, took part in the capture of Nazareth and its vicinity. During the Sinai Campaign he commanded the famous 9th Brigade that trekked to and captured Sharm el-Sheikh on the southern tip of the Sinai Peninsula. Early in 1957, he was appointed O.C. of the Officers' Training School and later became O.C. Training Command, before taking over his present post as O.C. Southern Command.

Tsur Leaving France
PARIS (INA). — The Israel Ambassador to France, Mr. Jacob Tsur, has started his official round of goodbye tours here in preparation for his return to Israel next July. He has notified Quai d'Orsay Protocol Chief Lando-Chancel of his forthcoming departure. Blair House in Washington was the scene on Friday of a farewell luncheon for Ambassador Abba Eban, a customary official formality, with Assistant Secretary of State Rountree acting as host.

150 Feared Dead As Nile Holiday Steamer Sinks

CAIRO (UPI). — Waiting relatives lined the banks of the Nile on Saturday as fishermen attempted to recover the bodies of an estimated 150 persons feared drowned in the greatest Nile River tragedy in years. By evening, the divers had brought 43 bodies ashore from the angry waters where the holiday steamer, Dandarah, on Friday, sprang a leak and sank as panic-stricken passengers jammed the shore-side deck. Relatives on shore kept up a steady weeping chorus which burst into piercing shrieks when a frogman would raise another body to the 60-foot floating crane above the sunken ship.

Bentov and Nehru Discuss Trade

NEW DELHI (Reuters). — Mr. Mordechai Bentov left by plane Saturday night for Tokyo, after a week's visit during which he met Prime Minister Nehru. Before the interview on Friday, Mr. Bentov talked with Mr. Nehru on the possibilities of Indian-Israeli collaboration, especially in the manufacture of fertilizers. Mr. Bentov, here for a week's visit, said he had already discussed this subject with other Indian ministers and officials. Asked whether he would discuss with Mr. Nehru the question of diplomatic recognition of Israel by India, Mr. Bentov said, "Not unless the Prime Minister wishes to discuss it."

He said he would like to see technical teams from India and Israel co-operating in the development of the fertilizers industry. Israel has large deposits of phosphate rock and potash which India badly needs for the manufacture of fertilizers. He had invited an Indian delegation of technical experts to visit Israel. An Israeli team would probably make a reciprocal visit to India later.

U.K. to Send Tanks And Bombers to Iraq

LONDON (Reuters). — Mr. John Profumo, British Minister of State, will announce on Monday Britain's agreement to make further arms deliveries to Iraq, according to a usually well-informed source. The commitment is expected to include Centurion tanks and Canberra bombers.

Ch. Malik Drinks Israel Wine At N.Y. Trade Fair

By JESSE ZEEL LURIE, Jerusalem Post Correspondent
NEW YORK. — "Mid-East Amity Marks Opening of Trade Fair" is the caption over a three-column photograph on the front page of the "New York Times" on Saturday showing Dr. Charles Malik of the Lebanon, President of the U.N. General Assembly, drinking Israel champagne with Mr. Arie Manor, the Israel Embassy's Minister for Economic Affairs, and Mr. Simcha Pratt, Israel Consul General, in front of the Kaiser-Frazer exhibit at the Israel Pavilion. The formal opening ceremony of the World Trade Fair on Friday morning included speeches by Mayor Robert F. Wagner and Dr. Malik.

The occasion included the "Sabot" first ever to be exported by Israel to the U.S. Dr. Malik accompanied Mayor Wagner on his tour of national pavilions. At the Israel Pavilion, Dr. Malik was greeted warmly by Mr. Nathan Raviv, Trade Commissioner, a former student of his at the American University in Beirut.

He accepted a glass of champagne and did not object when photographers clustered around. He expressed surprise that Israel produces champagne and asked where the grapes grew. Lebanon has no champagne but its wines are excellent, he said.

This is probably the first amicable picture of Arab and Israeli diplomats, but it should be added that the "Times" was wrong in identifying Dr. Malik as a delegate of the Lebanon. He is no longer connected with the Lebanese delegation, but continues to hold the presidency of the Assembly until the election of a new President.

His only other position, according to his secretary, is that he is on leave from Beirut. He is on leave from Beirut, he said, to see the political significance of the photograph, therefore, is that it may be Dr. Malik's way of indicating he is not returning to Lebanon and that he will probably accept a position in an American university.

His photograph may also be his way of saying that while he could not drink champagne in public with Israel, he represented Lebanon, he said, no reason why Arabs and Jews cannot live together amicably.

The Jerusalem Post special Trade Fair Supplement on sale at the entrance of the pavilion was popular with the visitors who crowded in Friday afternoon on Saturday. The 2,000 copies probably will not last through the weekend.

USSR Wants Tomorrow's Parley To End Occupation of W. Berlin

Khrushchev Warns West Can Be Wiped Off the Earth

MOSCOW (Reuters). — Mr. Nikita Khrushchev has warned the West, on the eve of the East-West Foreign Ministers' Conference, that Russia is capable of wiping the Western powers off the face of the earth.

The Soviet Prime Minister said the first to suffer in the event of war would be the countries in which the Americans are locating their rocket bases, "according to the official Soviet news agency, Tass." Mr. Khrushchev's assertions of Soviet might, made earlier this week in a speech to a group of West German newspaper editors, were published on Saturday in Russian newspapers. The Soviet leader both asked and answered the question "Would the Soviet Union suffer no losses in the event of war?" "Yes, it would have losses, and great ones," he said. "But while we would suffer losses, the Western powers would be literally wiped off the face of the earth."

Mediterranean Pact Said Being Planned

TURIN (Reuters). — The Liberal Italian newspaper, "La Stampa," of Turin on Saturday said Greece and Turkey plan a Mediterranean pact with Italy, with the projected adherence of the new state of Cyprus and other countries not members of Nato.

"Its purpose would be to strengthen the Western position in the Levant after Iraq's exit from the Baghdad Pact," the paper said. Reporting from Ankara on the visit of the Greek Premier and Foreign Minister, a special correspondent of the paper said, "According to Greek political observers, the ground seems favourable for the formation of a Mediterranean pact — a union of Mediterranean countries on the basis of the union of the Nordic countries within the frame of Nato."

"These observers think this union should be formed by Italy, Greece and Turkey and be open to other countries which are not members of Nato, above all to the new republic of Cyprus." Mr. Khrushchev, U.S. Deputy Defence Secretary, died in his sleep here on Friday.

Donald Quarles Dies in Sleep

WASHINGTON (Reuters). — Mr. Donald Quarles, U.S. Deputy Defence Secretary, died in his sleep here on Friday. He was 62. Mr. Quarles had been mentioned as a possible successor to the Defence Secretary, Mr. Neil McElroy, who plans to leave towards the end of the year.

Dag and Bunche Confer 6 Hours with Fawzi

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (Reuters). — Mr. Dag Hammarskjöld, the U.N. Secretary-General, and Dr. Mahmoud Fawzi, the U.A.R. Foreign Minister, conferred behind closed doors in an hotel room here for six hours on Saturday.

The subject of their talks has not been officially disclosed, but it was reliably reported they discussed recent incidents in the Suez Canal in which U.A.R. authorities refused to allow Israeli cargoes to pass through. On Friday, Mr. Hammarskjöld told a press conference Dr. Bunche achieved no tangible results worthwhile to record, but did useful contact work during his recent Middle East tour.

When asked whether the passage of Israeli cargoes via the Suez Canal was raised by Dr. Bunche or would be raised by himself during the meeting with Fawzi, Mr. Hammarskjöld refused comment. He did say the current quiet in the Middle East was encouraging and helpful for an eventual settlement.

Zeev Zarit, Petitioner, v.
1) Mayor of Beersheba and
2) Yeheskiel Shmulevitz,
Respondents (H.C.211/58).Membership of Defecting
Council with Headache
Not Invalidated

The High Court declared an order calling on the Mayor and Municipal Council of Beersheba to show cause why the membership of one of the councillors should not be invalidated.

The order was made on the basis of a petition filed by Zeev Zarit, a resident of Beersheba, who claimed that the Council had acted illegally in appointing a councillor who had been expelled from the Council for disciplinary reasons.

The Council had argued that the councillor's membership was valid because he had been elected by the voters of the district.

The Court, in its judgment, held that the Council's action was illegal and that the councillor's membership was invalid.

The Court also ordered the Council to pay the costs of the proceedings.

The Court's decision was a significant victory for the petitioner and a warning to other municipalities to act lawfully.

The Court's decision was based on the principle that the Council's actions must be lawful and in the best interests of the community.

The Court also noted that the Council had acted in a manner that was contrary to the law and the interests of the community.

Parade: From Yarkon
Bridge to JaffaJerusalem Post Reporter
TEL AVIV. — The route chosen for this year's Independence Day parade is the most suitable of all examined, and is preferable to the one used last time in Tel Aviv (Arlosoroff, Ben Yehuda and Allenby Roads), according to Aluf-Mishne Binjamin Gily, Acting O.C. Central Command.

The route of the parade on May 13 will be from the Yarkon Bridge through Peat Tikva Road, Rehov Alia, Salameh Road to Sderot Yerushalayim in Jaffa.

The Infantry section will end at Rehov Alia, and only the motorized units will continue to Jaffa.

A.M. Gily pointed out that in all matters pertaining to the parade, the police confirmed the route as the most suited. It ensured more than any other that the parade would be held in the most suitable conditions.

After the flag-bearing ceremony, the Air Force will fly over the parade, and the motorized column will follow with 3,000 footsloggers bringing up the rear. The motorized column will include 100 tanks, 30 artillery pieces, half-tracks and reconnaissance units in jeeps.

The parade will be held on May 13, 1959, at 10 a.m. The route will be from the Yarkon Bridge through Peat Tikva Road, Rehov Alia, Salameh Road to Sderot Yerushalayim in Jaffa.

Jewish Judge Named
'U.S. Mother, 1959'

NEW YORK (INA). — Judge Jennie Litman Barron, of the Superior Court of Massachusetts, on Tuesday became the choice of the American Mothers Committee for 'American Mother of 1959'.

Mrs. Barron, mother of three daughters, is the wife of a lawyer, Samuel Barron Jr. Her parents came to America from Russia in 1887. She is Honorary President of the New England Women's Division of the American Jewish Congress.

The American Mothers Committee, which is a national organization of women, was founded in 1917. It is dedicated to the improvement of the lives of American mothers and their children.

The committee's work includes the promotion of better housing, education, and health care for mothers and children. It also works to improve the lives of mothers and children in the home.

The committee's work is carried out through a network of local chapters across the United States. These chapters work to improve the lives of mothers and children in their communities.

The committee's work is supported by the American Jewish Congress, which is a national organization of Jews in America. The congress is dedicated to the improvement of the lives of Jews in America and the promotion of Jewish education and culture.

The committee's work is also supported by the American Jewish Archives, which is a national organization of Jews in America. The archives are dedicated to the preservation of Jewish history and culture in America.

Histadrut Campaign in Last Lap

Jerusalem Post Staff
 Campaign speakers from all parties contending in the Histadrut elections blanketed the country over the weekend, only a week before the Histadrut electorate goes to the polls on May 17.

As election day drew near, the main issue appeared to revolve around the minority parties' charges of Mapai dictatorship in the Histadrut and Mapai's claim that the minority parties offered no alternative to its own majority leadership.

Only Mapai Can Reform Histadrut

TEL AVIV. — "Of course changes and improvements are needed in the Histadrut. But only a strong Mapai will have the political courage and the strength to implement such improvements," said the Minister of Finance, Mr. Levi Eshkol, at a minority party meeting in the Mogilski Cinema in Tel Aviv on Friday night.

Mr. Eshkol warned against a situation in which there would be no strong majority force in the Histadrut which could take upon itself the responsibility for important decisions and actions.

The Minister of Finance devoted most of his speech to the economic problems facing the State and to the fact that the workers' standard of living had risen despite the heavy expenses for arms purchases and absorption of immigrants.

... Can Aid Arabs

NAZARETH. — "Mapai considers it its duty to establish complete equality for Israel Arabs and to raise their social, educational and economic standards to those enjoyed by the Jewish population. Thus they will form a bridge of peace to the neighboring peoples, who are also advancing to a better future," Mr. R. Barkat, head of the Histadrut Political Department, told a Mapai-sponsored meeting at the Empire Cinema on Saturday.

The enthusiastic audience of over 500 included Mr. U. Kewitz, Minister of Social Security, and his wife, Mayor Amin Jarjura, and Arab M.K.s.

On the home front Mapai has led the Israeli Arabs on the way to progress despite the problems and difficulties involved; the Party had cleared the way for granting full Histadrut membership to Arab workers, he declared.

... Can Guarantee Strong Leadership

TEL AVIV. — The interests of the workers require that there should be a united and strong leadership in the Histadrut and one strong party should represent all the workers in the country. Mr. Moshe Sharet, M.K., told a Mapai meeting at the Zohar Cinema here on Saturday morning.

It was doubly important, Mr. Sharet continued, that there be full cooperation between the leadership of the State and the workers' movement. This could only be achieved by a large party which would provide leadership in both spheres, he said.

Mr. Sharet went on to call for the unification of the three labour parties into a strong party resembling British Labour, which ironed out

Emigration of non-Jews from Rumania to the U.S.: Three Reactions

ON the Compulsory Absorption Loan that the Minister of Finance is determined to collect, Ha'aretz (non-party) writes that the 100,000 immigrants for whom the additional levy was meant have not been forthcoming; neither, even, have the 40,000 forehanded in the regular budget. Though Mr. Eshkol has the Knesset's authorization to collect and although economic arguments do not move him, perhaps that it had in the past there was no hope that it would ever be achieved.

Dangers on Youth Hikes

Editor, The Jerusalem Post
 Sir, — In connection with the death from sunstroke of a young girl on an excursion with the Noar Haoved "I am not a doctor, but I should like to state, as the mother of a boy who is in the same organization, that we consider there is a lack of responsibility in the planning and execution of these outings. If the parents in Nahariya ask for a meeting with the responsible leaders before an outing, we find a few boys trying to tell us about youth movements — something we enjoyed before these boys and youth who make promises. These boys do not themselves take part in the trip later on, and the promises are not kept.

This year, for instance, we were told that a pick-up truck would accompany the group and carry their heavy luggage and blankets, etc. Since this trip was to be very strenuous, we gave our children permission to go only after feeling sure that they would not have to carry anything. There was no truck, and the children had to carry their heavy equipment the whole time.

There seems to be nobody with a sense of responsibility in the Nahariya branch of this movement. We don't want our children to mix with movement time but we want to know the people who will look after them when they are away from home. Perhaps now is the time to look into these organizations.

Yours, etc.
 MRS. H. STRAUSS
 Nahariya, April 30.

OIL COMPANIES

Editor, The Jerusalem Post
 Sir, — Your detailed report of April 30 on the Masada Oil Company and oil production returned to Israel after a successful tour in Italy and Switzerland, where he conducted his own compositions among others.

The production of his scenic Ballet "Hedva" at the Stadttheater of St. Gall was very well received. The "Schweizer" wrote: "The music and text of this charming 'Spring Story' form a most successful ballet (and it deserved entirely the stormy applause it obtained from an enthusiastic public..." The "St. Galler Tagblatt" commented: "The music to the ballet is done with much talent and sounds very effective."

Mr. Gelbrun has been engaged to appear next season in Zurich, Geneva, Rome and Milan where he will present a new Symphony of his that has just been published in Milan.

Delta Jazz

THE new Olympia programme (Obel Shem, May 3) featured the best Negro ensemble — The Delta Rhythm Boys — we have heard here in years. Consisting of a vocal quartet, a pianist and accompanied by three local musicians (double bass, drums and electric guitar) they presented a great variety of jazz songs and spiritous as well as an excellently arranged opera parody (Rigoletto).
 The four singers have
